15.Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

The institute is dedicated to becoming a multifunctional, holistic organization. The institute is coordinating all of its efforts with the NEP 2020 implementation guidelines in order to accomplish this. In order to incorporate the suggestions, the institute is overhauling its curriculum structure regularly. In order to offer more possibilities and give a comprehensive and genuinely multidisciplinary/interdisciplinary approach, the institute organises various sessions by experts from various fields like Law, AI etc. . Institution provides creative and adaptable curriculum. Universal Human Value (UHV), the Indian Knowledge System and Community Engagement Project are now offered as credit courses. In addition, professional electives in family business, entrepreneurship, and information technology are available apart from regular specializations in Management such as HR, MArketing and Finance. To encourage and improve research, the IMER has recognised Research Center connected to Rani Channamma University.

16.Academic bank of credits (ABC):

According to notifications from regulatory agencies such as the UGC and Affiliating University-Rani Channamma University, Belagavi, the institution has enrolled on the DigiLocker-NAD platform for the National Academic Depository (NAD). DigiLocker-NAD now has the institution's academic award data. To obtain their credits, all students have been asked to sign up with DigiLocker. The institution has assigned a Nodal officer and established a NAD Cell. Students are periodically educated on NAD and related facilities by the institute. In order to give the degree or to fulfill any other regulatory need, the institute refers to the norms and regulations of the affiliated university. Institution is awaiting parent university rules for the multiple entry and exit mechanism as notified by UGC from time to time. Regarding Academic Bank of Credit, the institute is working on the guidelines provided by the university.

17.Skill development:

The revised curriculum structure includes Employability abilities Track I, II, and III to help students improve their abilities for improved job possibilities. The MBA program now includes a Community Engagement Project and Student Internship Program to increase industry exposure and raise understanding of social issues. In order to instill positivism in the learner, the institute offers value-based education through the Universal Human Values course. Through Employability Skill Tracks, the institute is working to guarantee that students succeed in enhancing their employability. Regular Institute-Industry-Interaction Series (III Series), Alumni Interactions, Value added certificate courses on AI, Power BI, Export Management etc are held to address gaps in both blended and on-campus learning environments and raise awareness of employability skills.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

Starting with the revised program structure for the year 2022-2023 onwards, two credit courses on IKS has been offered to the students. To promote Indian art, culture, and customs, the institute hosts guest sessions and cultural events. When appropriate, the faculty members use local or vernacular language in the classroom to help the students better understand management ideas. Faculty members who teach and aspire to teach IKS courses, are urged to take advantage of the Swayam platform's IKS-related seminars and courses and attend FDPs on the said subject. The students are also made aware of the resourses on IKS for additional knowledge and library has a collection of books on IKS.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

 Program Outcomes (POs) are clearly specified in the institute's MBA program structure. Based on the information in the syllabus, Course Outcomes (COs) have been created for each Course. The components of continuous internal evaluation (CIE) and SEE are connected to Bloom's Taxonomy levels and POs and COs in order to capture outcome-based education (OBE). Using Bloom's Taxonomy, question papers are categorized according to learning levels. Faculty members create lesson plans with the appropriate pedagogy to guarantee improved learning.

20.Distance education/online education:

The institute would consider the possibility of online/distance education based on the guidelines of regulatory authorities and availability of resources. Presently, the institute features a video room with a studio setup for online classes/sessions, as well as internet-based audio-visual resources to connect with stakeholders online . The institute has made value-added online courses (MOOCs)/Swayam, available to students. Depending on their area of expertise and desired career path, the faculty mentors advise students to sign up for appropriate MOOC courses.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which are reflected in Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) of the various Programmes offered by the Institution.

All faculty members participated in the core committee's formulation of the curricula, which were relevant to the local, regional, national, and international developmental demands after consulting with representatives of the industry. The learning objectives of the course materials are appropriately captured by the appropriate Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs), and Course Outcomes (COs) that have been produced. The Board of Studies, Academic Council, and Governing Body—statutory bodies established in accordance with the UGC recommendations for Autonomous Colleges—have approved the curricula that have been prepared in this manner. The institute uses a participative method to create its action plan. During the faculty meeting before to the start of each semester, the courses are assigned according to their experience and areas of specialty. All faculty members are informed when the timetable is ready.The lesson plans for each course are created by the faculty members. For the successful implementation and delivery of the curriculum, the faculty members employ pedagogy such as lectures, assignments, presentations, live projects, case study analyses, etc.

2.5.3 - IT integration and reforms in the examination procedures and processes including Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) have brought in considerable improvement in the Examination Management System (EMS) of the Institution

Our examination structure is classified into two parts namely Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) for 40 Marks &Semester End Examination (SEE). for 60 Marks. A mid-termExamination of 40 marks is conducted as a part of CIE andit is reduced to 10 Marks. If one course is handled/taught by two faculty members for different divisions under such cases the facultymembers will jointly set the question paper for mid-term. Course-wise question papers setters and answer scriptevaluators are appointed by exam section based on the approval of BOS. Once the examiners submit their questionpapers the manuscripts are subjected to scrutiny and post scrutiny the question papers are placed before BOE forapproval. SEE examinations are conducted as per the academic calendar.Time table of the examination is informed tothe students a fortnight in advance. A separate examination cell has been established for the smooth andsuccessful conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) and semester-end examinations. Contineo SoftwarePlatform is deployed for generating results. This software will also assist in mapping the COs and POs. Evaluation marks of CIE and SEE are uploaded on Contineo by the concerned evaluators/examiners post which results aregeneratedand announced to the students.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which are reflected in Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) of the various Programmes offered by the Institution.

All faculty members participated in the core committee's formulation of the curricula, which were relevant to the local, regional, national, and international developmental demands after consulting with representatives of the industry. The learning objectives of the course materials are appropriately captured by the appropriate Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs), and Course Outcomes (COs) that have been produced. The Board of Studies, Academic Council, and Governing Body—statutory bodies established in accordance with the UGC recommendations for Autonomous Colleges—have approved the curricula that have been prepared in this manner. The institute uses a participative method to create its action plan. During the faculty meeting before to the start of each semester, the courses are assigned according to their experience and areas of specialty. All faculty members are informed when the timetable is ready.The lesson plans for each course are created by the faculty members. For the successful implementation and delivery of the curriculum, the faculty members employ pedagogy such as lectures, assignments, presentations, live projects, case study analyses, etc.

2.5.3 - IT integration and reforms in the examination procedures and processes including Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) have brought in considerable improvement in the Examination Management System (EMS) of the Institution

Our examination structure is classified into two parts namely Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) for 40 Marks &Semester End Examination (SEE). for 60 Marks. A mid-termExamination of 40 marks is conducted as a part of CIE andit is reduced to 10 Marks. If one course is handled/taught by two faculty members for different divisions under such cases the facultymembers will jointly set the question paper for mid-term. Course-wise question papers setters and answer scriptevaluators are appointed by exam section based on the approval of BOS. Once the examiners submit their questionpapers the manuscripts are subjected to scrutiny and post scrutiny the question papers are placed before BOE forapproval. SEE examinations are conducted as per the academic calendar.Time table of the examination is informed tothe students a fortnight in advance. A separate examination cell has been established for the smooth andsuccessful conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) and semester-end examinations. Contineo SoftwarePlatform is deployed for generating results. This software will also assist in mapping the COs and POs. Evaluation marks of CIE and SEE are uploaded on Contineo by the concerned evaluators/examiners post which results aregeneratedand announced to the students.
